Notes

Cross Country

I am delighted to be able to tell you that the cross country event organised by this school on Wednesday this week was a massive success. Thank you to EVERYONE who put so much hard work in to make this happen. I am also thrilled to be able to tell you that our team of talented young runners won the event. Well done everybody.

Netball

On Thursday this week one of our netball teams played a tournament at Whitchurch Primary School. I am so pleased to be able to announce they came first. We are really proud of them and Gemma Cole who works so hard as a volunteer to train them.

Children in Need

Friday the 18 November is Children in Need day. The children are welcome to come to school in something spotty. A voluntary £1 donation will be gratefully passed on to such a good cause. Cakes and biscuits will also be sold for 20p if children want to bring in some extra money.

After School Singing Club

We have 2 Christmas performances coming up. If anybody would like to join the choir please let Mrs Powell know. All age groups are welcome.

Christmas Wreath Decorating

On the 30 November Christmas Wreaths are going to be made which will then be sold at the Christmas Fayre. Everyone is welcome to come along and help make them. The more the merrier please. Donations of greenery are also needed. If you are able to help or donate greenery please can you let Tracey Hunt know? Thank you

Christmas Church Service

A date has been set for the Christmas Church service. It will be on Thursday 15 December 2016. It has been decided to hold it in the afternoon this year rather than the evening as the children get so tired this time of the year.
