NOTES

Netball - Well Done

I am delighted to be able to tell you that our netball team entered a small schools competition last week in Tavistock. They did really well and came second overall. This means they have now qualified for the West Devon Small Schools tournament. We wish them lots of luck. A BIG THANK YOU must be said to Gemma Cole whose help has been invaluable.

Competition Winner

I am also delighted to be able to give you some more good news. Lydia Hobbs entered a poetry competition she spotted in an Enjoy Dartmoor magazine. She won 1 night sleepover at the National Marine Aquarium! Well done Lydia this really is a fantastic achievement. Having read the beautiful poem she wrote I can see why she won.

Defibrillator Training

I have been asked to let you know that Ann, from Triangle Training, will be giving instructions on how to use a defibrillator in the school hall on Monday 8 February 2016 at 7pm. The training will be free and is being provided as a defibrillator is now held in the Blue Lion. If you have any questions regarding this please see Allana Chick. Thank you.

Eden Project

Just to let you know the Eden Project is hosting "Destination Space" for the weekends of the 23rd and 24th and 30th and 31st January 2016. It would be fun and informative if it can fit in with your family plans. Currently there is a "Locals Pass" offer on with discounted admission rates. For information about this see online at www.edenproject.com or www.destinationpace.co.uk.
